

IRONTON, MO., APRIL 26, 1917

B. D. AKE, EDITOR.

VOLUME L. NUMBER 47.

The Governor used the pruning knife pretty well on the appropriation bills, but I wish he could have seen his way clear to pass that pertaining to the blind.

The war is on, and Uncle Samuel must have men to fight for him; therefore, regretting the necessity, I favor selective conscription. It is fairest to all.

The unspeakable Turk seems to be getting it in the neck, and my prediction is that the sick men will be a heap sicker as the months roll on, and that Constantinople will cease to be a bone of contention between Mahometan and Christian.

On the first page is printed an article entitled "Our Flag"—one of the finest tributes to the national emblem I have ever read. It is copied from the Southern Ruralist of Atlanta, Georgia, but the author's name is not given, being withheld at his request. His modesty is unwarranted; all true Americans will agree to the sentiments he so eloquently expresses and would take pleasure in doing him honor.

From the De Soto Press: "Jefferson county will in all probability urge at least one of her favorite sons—James G. Berkeley—into the race for congress next year. And he will go into the fight backed by practically every Democrat in the county. Mr. Berkeley is favorably known, too, in other parts of this district and has friends everywhere. Jim has not only made up his mind to become a candidate, but we are of the opinion that his friends will force his hat into the ring."

One of the biggest slashes the Governor made on the appropriation bills was that vetoing $240,000 for pensions for ex-Confederate soldiers. He said it would be impossible to allow this item without doing great injustice to state institutions. He pointed out that when the law of 1913 was passed it was supposed that $200,000 would suffice for the biennial period, and that there were only 153 indigent ex-Confederates in the state. The next legislature paid off deficiencies of $204,000, at the rate of fifty cents on the dollar, and appropriated $300,000 additional. The governor, however, has approved the item of $200,000 for back pensions due from 1915 and 1916.

Annapolis News.

We have had rains and high winds the past week. Prospects are good for some growing weather.

Well, I am sorry our Governor has seen fit to veto the appropriation for Confederate pensions.

Chas. H. Hampton, who has been working for Chas. B. Borch the past three years, struck Saturday for higher wages.

Robert Pancher, who is working at Flat River, is home to see his mother, brothers and sisters.

Richard Mackworth, now living in the Lead Belt, is figuring on moving his family back to Annapolis in the near future. It costs too much to live up there.

The railroad company has put up notices at the bridge, south of Annapolis, forbidding any one to cross the structure unless in the employ of the company.

F. Waterbury was badly hurt while working in the handle factory one day the past week. He had to be hauled home, but at present is getting along as well as could be expected.

J. W. Hughes and L. T. Tindal, of Sebula, were in Annapolis Monday on business.

Thomas Castle has moved back to Annapolis.

James L. Castle was here from Flat River Sunday.

Jesse Clayton is settling down to tanning for this year.

Eggs are scarce here, but still selling at twenty cents a dozen.

Walter S. Deborde of Piedmont is in town on his way home after visiting his father, who lives four miles east of Annapolis, and has been in poor health for more than a year, and not much chance for recovery.

R. C. Kemp and wife are in town. Fred C. Kitchell ate dinner with his father here Monday. He lives at Des Arc, but works at Flat River and was on his way there.

David Culton was in Poplar Bluff last week and reports a good time.

Floyd Webb, son of Lou T. Webb, who lives between here and Lester-ville, is in town to-day. He reports some peach blossoms out his way.

Many Annapolis folk in Ironton this week.

Bellevue News.

Mr. J. W. Wood and son, Jesse, spent a few days of last week with relatives near Edgehill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reagan and baby spent Sunday in our village.

Miss Gladys Bell of Marvin College spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Mrs. Alma Davis left Sunday for her home in Oklahoma, having spent two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Ella Lowe.

A. E. Campbell spent most of last week on Black River fishing and visiting relatives.

Miss Edna Haynes, who is spending the spring with her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Bell, visited relatives in Bismarck the first of the week.

Dr. Will Crenshaw of Caledonia is doing dental work in our town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Townsend moved last Monday to the cottage recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lang and Mrs. Hannah Light of Leadwood spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ricketts.

Robert W. Ford returned Monday from Marble Hill, where he attended High School this year.

Prof. Houston McGold closed a successful nine months' school here last Friday, with appropriate exercises in the evening. The pupils acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner. A large crowd of patrons and friends were in attendance. Prof. G. W. Hanson presented 8th grade diplomas to Miss Emma Townsend and to Eugene Gibbs.

Married—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, three miles northwest of town on last Wednesday, Miss Jeannette Phillips to Mr. Harvey Reddick, of Festus. We join their many friends in wishing for them a long and happy voyage on the sea of matrimony. They will reside in Festus. ALPHA.

Schach—Mangold.

(Popular Bluff Republican.)

A large and notable wedding of Monday was that of Miss Myrtle Mangold and Fred J. Schach, which took place at the Sacred Heart Church at 10:30 a. m. The bride was attended by Mrs. LeMasters of Festus, a sister, and Mr. LeMasters served Mr. Schach as best man.

Frank Mangold, brother of the bride, gave her away. The simple ring ceremony was used. Many cut flowers were scattered throughout the church.

The bride was gowned in white crepe meteor, over which fell a veil of misty white tulle, this being supported by a wreath of lilies of the valley and orange blossoms. She carried a huge shower of pink rose buds and sweet peas.

After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the Quinn hotel where a five course wedding breakfast was served. The couple will immediately go to housekeeping at 109 N. Tenth street.

The bride is a daughter of the late W. M. Mangold, who owned extensive interests in this county, most of which are adjacent to Harvill. For several years the family home has been at that place. Mr. Schach has made this city his home for some time and is well known. He is identified with the building trade.

Reddick—Phillips.

Festus News.

Mr. Harvey Reddick and Miss Jeannette Phillips were united in marriage Wednesday, April 18, 1917 at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride near Bellevue, Mo., by Mr. R. D. Kennedy. Miss Jeannette Phillips served as bridesmaid and Mr. Loran Townsend as best man. The relatives made up the wedding party.

After a wedding dinner was served the happy couple boarded the 12:30 train for Festus. At 8 o'clock at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reddick, a wedding supper was served to the wedding party and some friends.

The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Reddick of this place and is employed at the Citizen's Bank; he is a young man noted for his honesty and uprightness.

The bride is one of Bellevue's popular young ladies. They will make their home in Festus where the groom has purchased a home. May their future life be blessed with good health, happiness and prosperity.

Goodland Items.

We are enjoying the beautiful spring weather. Many an acre of corn will be planted the coming week.

Gardens are looking fine. Surveyor Faulkenberry, of Lester-ville, was in our community last week doing some work in his line.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Black have gone to Nebraska to live.

Mrs. Evelyn Brooks in company with her son, Mr. Altswager, spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. M. G. Harrison, in St. Louis. Her daughter, Miss Florence, accompanied them home.

Redmond Black is recovering from a very severe illness.

Monroe Black is able to be out after a long sick spell.

Orville Crocker and family, of Goodwater, spent Sunday with G. G. Adams.

Arthur Love and John S. Adams have come home from Columbia to do farm work.

Our Sunday School is improving every week. Bro. Asher preached for us last Sunday.

Mrs. Stacey Bell is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Akers, at Redmond-ville this week.

The school at Goodland closed last Saturday with a little program by the pupils, and a treat by the teacher. Mr. Downard has taught two terms for us and has been employed for the coming school year. A pretty good recommendation for a teacher.

Thieves entered the home of Mr. Fry Woods last Saturday night and carried off from his bedroom a trunk containing among other things three hundred dollars. A sad loss for the old gentleman. THOMAS HAY.
